Integrating Design Elements Into Your Environment

Using LMC's unique processes and products, you can incorporate beautiful, ornate design patterns and decorative metal textures into your work. From classic motifs and design themes such as Art Nouveau, Oriental, Bauhaus, Fleur-de-lis, and Art Deco, to custom designs from your own artwork, company branding or logo.

Nearly any graphic artwork can be transcribed into three-dimensional design elements of any size, for use in tiles, doors, furniture, signage, displays, products and architectural elements. LMC can also add rich textures to your design to increase the authenticity and appeal of the finished product.

This patented process has been used by designers, artists and fabricators in applications such as the Bellagio and MGM Hotels in Las Vegas, and extensively by the motion picture film industry in movies such as "Batman", "Conspiracy Theory", and "Speed II".

You can use the process to create exciting new products, often using your existing processes and materials. Some of the possibilities are shown below:
